OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail Address,

PROCLAMATION.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN:

Amidst the manifold vicissitudes and calamities that have befallen and surrounded us, threatening the life of our nation, and the lives of so many of its heroic and noble sons, it particularly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared.

The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely raging around us, have not touched the border of our state; excepting the brave men who have rallied around our country's flag in this time of peril, our citizens have been allowed to pursue their peaceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence sometimes has pleased to grant us, has yet well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filled our houses and barns; the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

The great cause of our nation, it is true, has not triumphed yet over its enemies, but neither has it yet failed; the enemy has been driven from the soil of the loyal states; our army has been reinforced by hundreds of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union: our resources and energies are unimpaired; we have reason to be hopeful for the future, and therefore thankful for the past.

The loyalty, honor and patriotism of the state of Wisconsin have been nobly sustained by her brave sons upon every field of battle where they have been called upon to vindicate our national flag. The just pride which we feel in the bravery of our noble soldiers should fill our hearts with gratitude to Almighty God, who has sustained them in their hour of trial.

For these and other uncounted blessings which the infinite goodness of God has vouchsafed to us during the past year, we should thank Him from the depth of our hearts. And therefore, and in accordance with the time honored custom, I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 27th day of November, 1862, AS A DAY OF THANKSGIVING AND REST, and recommend to the people of this state on that day to abstain from secular labor, and to assemble at their usual places of worship to show their grateful hearts to the beneficent Ruler of the Universe, and to pray for a speedy suppression of the rebellion, and for peace to our distracted country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of [SEAL.] State to be affixed, this 31st day of October, A. D. 1862.

EDWARD SALOMON, Governor.

EDWARD ILSLEY, Secretary of State.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

From Col. Utley's Regiment—The Negro Question.

LEXINGTON, KY., Nov. 19, 1862.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—The agony is "piling." "Dock," one of the rebel Hogan's contrabands that Col. Utley did'nt deliver up on the order of Gen. Gilmore, was decoyed out of the camp lines last night about 10 o'clock, by a scoundrel belonging to company I, by the name of Palmer Sherman, from Racine, and delivered up to a negro thief, for a sum less than the price Judas received. The "nig" was choked and gagged by the thief, and dragged down to the town and lodged in the jail. He was not missed in camp till the guard came up next morning who had guarded the jail during the night. As soon as the Colonel heard it he wrote an order, demanding the provost guard to go to the jail and return "Dock" to his camp, or he would be reported to Washington immediately. In about half an hour "Dock" was escorted to the camp, amid the shouts of the whole regiment. A large ring was formed, and both the betrayer and the betrayed were ordered in the center. After a most witherring rebuke from the Colonel to Sherman, a vote of the regiment was taken, which was most entitled to the respect of the regiment, "Dock" or Sherman? The result was that "Dock" was unanimously ahead.

The Governor of Kentucky has been in consultation a whole day with the prominent men of the state, and the conclusion to which they came was, that the Governor should demand of Gen. Granger, to order all commanders of regiments in the state to deliver up at once all contrabands in their lines. If he would do so, and enforce his order, all well. If not, then let all "loyal and union men" turn bushwhackers, and form behind trees and stumps, from the hill tops and by the way side, and continue to shoot the officers until the federal army would be willing to respect the laws of Kentucky and the rights of her citizens. The right Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Georgetown, covered all over with holy horror of abolitionism, and hypocritical unionism, stated to me to-day, that he was one of the loyal junta who had piously come to the above conclusion.

"Why," said he, "a thousand knives are already whet to cut Col. Utley's throat." He says, with very few exceptions, all Kentucky is for the Union; "but," said he, "if the laws of congress and the proclamation are attempted to be enforced, in violation of the laws of Kentucky, every citizen will be in arms against the government in thirty days, and all the Kentucky regiments will join them. The civil authorities of that state must be respected, though the heavens fall." They are Union with the "nigger," or the "nigger" without the Union—the "nigger" anyhow. Wisconsin should demand, under the circumstances, that her regiments be brigaded together and Wisconsin generals placed over them. No better soldiers ever shouldered a musket, but under Kentucky rule and policy they are kept seperate and brigaded with regiments, whose backbone (if they ever had one) has been drawn out. Oh, that Col. Utley was a general and had a brigade of Wisconsin boys under him, the laws of congress and the orders of the war department would be obeyed though all hell (i. e. Kentucky) opposed.

We are having powerful rains now. The rivers will soon be rising, and then look out for active times with the gunboats. The health of the 22d regiment is generally good. The boys complain of nothing but scanty and poor food, and still they are in the midst of plenty. But Kentucky generals threaten severe punishment if they accept even a gift from the citizens, and, being out of money, they are tied down to hard bread and greasy bacon. If their friends at home could realize how rejoiced they are when little boxes of luxuries arrive in camp, they would forego all luxuries at home and send them to camp. But I must close. B. S. H.

PROCLAMATION.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN:

Amidst the manifold vicissitudes and calamities that have befallen and surrounded us, threatening the life of our nation, and the lives of so many of its heroic and noble sons, it particularly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared.

The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely reging around us, have not touched the border of our state: excepting the brave men who have rallied around our country's flag in this time of peril, our citizens have been allowed to pursue their peaceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence sometimes has pleased to grant us, has yet well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filled our houses and barns; the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

The great cause of our nation, it is true, has not triumphed yet over its enemies, but neither has it yet failed; the enemy has been driven from the soil of the loyal states; our army has been reinforced by hundreds of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union: our resources and energies are unimpaired; we have reason to be hopeful for the future, and therefore thankful for the past.

The loyalty, honor and patriotism of the state of Wisconsin have been nobly sustained by her brave sons upon every field of battle where they have been called upon to vindicate our national flag. The just pride which we feel in the bravery of our noble soldiers should fill our hearts with gratitude to Almighty God, who has sustained them in their hour of trial.

For these and other uncounted blessings which the infinite goodness of God has vouchsafed to us during the past year, we should thank Him from the depth of our hearts. And therefore, and in accordance with the time honored custom, I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 27th day of November, 1862, AS A DAY OF THANKSGIVING AND REST, and recommend to the people of this state on that day to abstain from secular labor, and to assemble at their usual places of worship to show their grateful hearts to the beneficent Ruler of the Universe, and to pray for a speedy suppression of the rebellion, and for peace to our distracted country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of [SEAL.] State to be affixed, this 31st day of October, A. D. 1862.

EDWARD SALOMON, Governor.

EDWARD ILSLEY, Secretary of State.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

From Col. Utley's Regiment—The Negro Question.

LEXINGTON, KY., Nov. 19, 1862.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—The agony is "piling." "Dock," one of the rebel Hogan's contrabands that Col. Utley did'nt deliver up on the order of Gen. Gilmore, was decoyed out of the camp lines last night about 10 o'clock, by a scoundrel belonging to company I, by the name of Palmer Sherman, from Racine, and delivered up to a negro thief, for a sum less than the price Judas received. The "nig" was choked and gagged by the thief, and dragged down to the town and lodged in the jail. He was not missed in camp till the guard came up next morning who had guarded the jail during the night. As soon as the Colonel heard it he wrote an order, demanding the provost guard to go to the jail and return "Dock" to his camp, or he would be reported to Washington immediately. In about half an hour "Dock" was escorted to the camp, amid the shouts of the whole regiment. A large ring was formed, and both the betrayer and the betrayed were ordered in the center. After a most withering rebuke from the Colonel to Sherman, a vote of the regiment was taken, which was most entitled to the respect of the regiment, "Dock" or Sherman? The result was that "Dock" was unanimously ahead.

The Governor of Kentucky has been in consultation a whole day with the prominent men of the state, and the conclusion to which they came was, that the Governor should demand of Gen. Granger, to order all commanders of regiments in the state to deliver up at once all contrabands in their lines. If he would do so, and enforce his order, all well. If not, then let all "loyal and union men" turn bushwhackers, and form behind trees and stumps, from the hill tops and by the way side, and continue to shoot the officers until the federal army would be willing to respect the laws of Kentucky and the rights of her citizens. The right Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Georgetown, covered all over with holy horror of abolitionism, and hypocritical unionism, stated to me to-day, that he was one of the loyal junta who had piously come to the above conclusion.

"Why," said he, "a thousand knives are already whet to cut Col. Utley's throat." He says, with very few exceptions, all Kentucky is for the Union; "but," said he, "if the laws of congress and the proclamation are attempted to be enforced, in violation of the laws of Kentucky, every citizen will be in arms against the government in thirty days, and all the Kentucky regiments will join them. The civil authorities of that state must be respected, though the heavens fall." They are Union with the "nigger," or the "nigger" without the Union—the "nigger" anyhow. Wisconsin should demand, under the circumstances, that her regiments be brigaded together and Wisconsin generals placed over them. No better soldiers ever shouldered a musket, but under Kentucky rule and policy they are kept seperate and brigaded with regiments, whose backbone (if they ever had one) has been drawn out. Oh, that Col. Utley was a general and had a brigade of Wisconsin boys under him, the laws of congress and the orders of the war department would be obeyed though all hell (i. e. Kentucky) opposed.

We are having powerful rains now. The rivers will soon be rising, and then look out for active times with the gunboats. The health of the 22d regiment is generally good. The boys complain of nothing but scanty and poor food, and still they are in the midst of plenty. But Kentucky generals threaten severe punishment if they accept even a gift from the citizens, and, being out of money, they are tied down to hard bread and greasy bacon. If their friends at home could realize how rejoiced they are when little boxes of luxuries arrive in camp, they would forego all luxuries at home and send them to camp. But I must close. B. S. H.

The Advance upon Richmond---An Amended Programme.

The Philadelphia Press says that the military authorities at Washington have determined to make a diversion in a different quarter from that now occupied by the army of the Potomac. One of our most distinguished generals has expressed the opinion that to take Richmond now we must temporarily divert the enemy's attention from his present fortified base of operations. No immediate advance will be made upon Richmond by way of Fredericksburg. After mentioning the modes of advance by way of York and James rivers, the Press suggests a third by way of Suffolk, through Nansemond, Isle of Wight, Southampton, Sussex and Prince George counties, along excellent roads, through a level, well-watered plain, seizing Blandford Heights, overlooking Petersburg. This is a march of fifty-eight miles. In the latter movement we would have the cover of gunboats in the James river, if needed, and the privilege of landing reinforcements as high up as City Point, twelve miles below Petersburg, and Coggin's Point, fourteen miles below that point.

From Petersburg, a cavalry expedeition would be necessary only to proceed west to Burkesville Junction of the Tennessee and Danville railroads and destroy them both. It seems to us that if Petersburg were once in our hands it would give us virtual possession of the entire south, and force Gen. Lee to fight his army either to extermination or submission, without any chance of retreat, or means of obtaining supplies or reinforcements from the south and southwest.

The Army and Slavery.

The Milwaukee News, of course denounces Col. Utley, and sympathizes with the Kentucky judge who pronounces the confiscation laws of congress and the emancipation proclamation of the President unconstitutional and of no validity. Whenever a slaveholder gets into trouble about his human chattels, the News is in tribulation also. Its democracy consists in defending and shielding from harm the worst aristocracy that exists on the face of God's earth. How it is possible that such newspapers can delude laboring men into the support of a party which has but one end and aim, and that is to support a set of aristocrats who degrade labor by buying and selling those who do their work, is one of the strangest things in the history of the race. A negro cannot fall into the ranks of the Union army anywhere without producing spasm on the part of the News and its fellow democrats. It is in this case, as in all others of this nature. Col. Utley is wrong and the Kentucky slaveholder is right, in the eyes of the slavery worshippers.

The News declares that "the colonel believes that on the subject of slavery the laws of Wisconsin should prevail in Kentucky." This is a false statement of the case. The colonel believes that the United States army is governed by the same laws everywhere throughout the country. The articles of war controlling our troops in the field are not changed by the laws of Kentucky, but are the same there as in Wisconsin, or Tennessee, or Mississippi. Colonel Utley reads the laws of congress and finds that no one connected with the army has a right to judge of the status of the negro, or to deliver any one claimed as a slave to his master. Must he obey this law or violate it? The News would have him rebel against national enactments to accommodate the aristocrats of Kentucky, who think more of robbing a negro of his labor than of the blessings of a republican government. We are not surprised that Colonel Utley repudiates such dectrines, and we rejoice that he has the firmness to stand unflinchingly upon his rightful position in the face of blustering slaveholders and sympathisers with treason. We venture the prediction that Col. Utley is, to day, the most popular commander in this state whom Wisconsin has sent into the field, because he has the "backbone" to stand by his principles and his duty against all the arts, blandishments and frowns of the aristocrats of Kentucky. The people spontaneously honor him wherever the account of his conflict with the chief justice of that state is known and read.

Col. Utley does not stand alone in the army, on this question, as the following order of Gen. Sherman will show:

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
MEMPHIS, Nov. 11, 1862.

The judge of the criminal court having charged the grand jury on certain points where a conflict of authority might arise, all persons will take notice that any attempt to execute state laws at variance with the orders of the President and military commanders, will be construed as a contempt of the authority of the United States, and will be summarily punished. The status of the negro is involved in the war now existing and will in its progress be clearly determined. In the meantime, runaway slaves must be treated as free, and people encouraged to give them employment as such. So far as the court confines its business to punishing murder, arson, burglary and crime mala in se, the provost guard is required to co-operate.

By order of Major General Sherman.
(Signed) D. C. ANTHONY,
Provost Marshal of Memphis.

Judge Potter writes a letter giving strong reasons why another should be elected, and why all republicans should avoid controversy and unite on that other. The question is whether this advice is good or bad, sound or unsound. It appears as very fair logic, that those who have faith that Judge Potter would prove a good representative (and we are of the number) should have some confidence in the wisdom of his advice, and be governed accordingly.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

We are not sure that Judge Potter has written just such a letter as is described above. If he gives "strong reasons" why no one should think of any other person as a republican candidate for senator than Judge Doolittle, we should like to know what they are. Let us have the whole letter published, that all may judge for themselves. This setting up the pins for a particular man for the senatorial office, and then demanding that no one shall knock these pins over, for fear of a "controversy," is an old game. "We have got it all settled," say the insiders, "and you fellows outside must not get up any fuss, but submit quietly to our dictation." This game won't win, this time. The great mass of the republican voters of the state want a senator who will represent them and their ideas. They, therefore, have a right to a voice in choosing him, and we do not believe, will submit to be managed out of it by any representation that the thing is already settled, and that the only way to keep peace in the family is to cease all controversy and unite on the candidate selected for them.

We understand that the letter referred to was obtained, the next day or two after the election, by the personal solicitation of Judge Doolittle; that it has never been forwarded to the person to whom it was addressed, but has been continually used, or extracts from it, for the purpose of proving that Judge Potter will not be candidate in any event, and that he declines in favor of Judge Doolittle. We hardly believe the letter will bear this construction; but to settle it let us have it published. The whole of it.

It strikes us that Milwaukee republicans should not be foremost in forestalling public sentiment on the senatorial question. The record is strongly against some of them, and the odium of it rests upon all—five thousand majority against them, and yet foremost to dictate candidates! Treachery in their ranks, but preaching submission to Rock county to avoid controversy! Permitting a mean mob to drag an effigy of John F. Potter through their filthy streets with a rope around its neck, without opposition, and with the approving smile of some who have called themselves republicans, and then attempting to manage the matter so that the people cannot have Potter for senator however much they may want him!

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
MAJOR GEN. ROSECRANS' HEADQUARTERS,
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 19, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—All things seem to indicate plainly that the rainy season has at last fairly set in here. If that be the case then we may look for rain and mud, then mud and rain for a change. The rain and mud will, no doubt, retard our movements on land somewhat, but will damage the rebels fully as much. The fleet we have now inactive on these western waters wants rain to raise the water, and when that takes place then woe to old cornfed along the rivers.

The work on the tunnel between here and Bowling Green is being pushed ahead as fast as possible and will be completed in a few days, and when that is done we can move on once more. Until that is done we cannot leave here, on account of our supplies; even now we are short of rations again and our animals have no hay.

The men here are nearly all favorably predisposed to General Rosecrans, and his free and easy style, when moving among the different regiments, only increases this confidence. The other day when reviewing Gens. Negley's and Palmer's commands, if he saw a man in the ranks who needed any article of clothing, from an overcoat to a sock, he would say to that man, "You tell your captain what you need, and give him no rest until you get it. If he is walking down the street with a friend, ask him for it; and if asleep, awaken him to get it for you."

The Nashville Union is a firm, loyal paper, and stands square and steadfast on the emancipation policy. It scruples not to tell the negro-loving people of Nashville that it supports the President and his proclamation, which it keeps in its columns all the time. The editor spares not those officials who neglect their duty, but he exposes them to the public gaze as villains, which they truly are.

Since we came here the produce from the country begins to come in rapidly, but still all things sell at tall prices. Fuel is scarce and high; wood is $15 per cord, and coal $1 per bushel. Business has livened up greatly since we came here, but it is mostly on account of the army.

Large numbers of slaves who have escaped from rebel owners are now in the city, and more are coming every day. The moving of so many slaves south, and the impressment of them into the rebel army, creates a stampede among them for our lines. We expect a winter in the saddle. I say amen!

Yours, in haste, J. M. KIMBALL.

☞ A correspondent of the Beaver Dam Argus, a member of the 17th regiment, writes:

"The 17th is generally known to be almost entirely democratic. By design or accident we did not have an opportunity to vote, last Tuesday, being near the end of a wearisome march, and obliged to accomplish it."

Inasmuch as the Colonel and the officers generally of this regiment are democrats, the "design or accident" of no vote being taken is attributable to them.

Bright sunshine precedes Thanksgiving.

INCIDENTS OF THE DRAFT.—We hear of some queer incidents connected with the draft in this county. One of the drafted men in Bristol, Thomas Kearns, is a volunteer in the 33d regiment, and is now at Cairo or Memphis with his company. He was one of the first to enlist under the call for 300,000 men. In the town of Paris a father and son were drafted—the former being a little over 61 years of age. We noticed the old gentleman in the ranks, when the men were mustered last Saturday—head and beard as white as snow. There were several drafted who were enrolled in two towns, so that they stood a double chance of serving their country. In Somers a citizen of Racine county was drafted, also a citizen of the 2d ward of this city. Adam McAuley was drafted, a well known citizen of Pleasant Prairie, who has twice enlisted and both times been rejected by the mustering officer. He says this is the third time he has enlisted, and he hopes they will let him go this time.—Kenosha Telegraph.

A VIAL OF WRATH.—A confederate surgeon, who had been attending rebel patients in the hospital at Bolivar, being desirous of joining his command in Price's army a few days ago, got permission to go through our lines. He hed a very fine medicine chest filled with stores recruited at the federal hospital, which he wished to take with him. Our officers objected to this proposition. The matter was finally referred to General McPherson, and an examination of the chest was ordered. On taking out the drugs and medicines, a small secret apartment was discovered in the box, which was found to contain a pint bottle. The bottle was bro't forth, and the contents were discovered to be anything but spiritual. They consisted of editorial articles cut from the columns of the Chicago Times the most violent efforts of that delectable sheet for the past two or three months. Strung together they made a succession of powerful phillippics against the government, which would certainly give no little aid and comfort in the south, as the sentiment of the leading democratic paper of the northwest. The vial of wrath was sent to Governor Yates, and may cause some trouble at the Times office before long.—Corinth cor. Cincinnati Com.

TO PRESERVE POTATOES.—The potato crop is too valuable this season to be lost by rot, if it can be saved. A correspondent of the Scientific American says he has tried the following plan of keeping potatoes for four years, and not lost a bushel in that time after they were harvested, though they were half diseased when taken out of the ground:

Dust over the floor of the bin with lime and put in about six or seven inches deep of potatoes, and dust with lime as before. Put in six or seven inches more of potatoes, and lime as before; repeat the operation till all are stowed in that way. One bushel of lime will do for forty bushels of potatoes, though more will not hurt them—the lime rather improving the flavor than otherwise.

DIPTHERIA IN WESTERN ILLINOIS.—The diptheria has been raging throughout the country to an alarming extent, and seems to a great extent to baffle the skill of the physicians. It is confined most exclusively to children, and when once under headway, death is almost certain to be the result. It will pass through whole town, missing scarcely a family, and in some instances whole families of children have been swept away by it.

Our neighboring town of Moline, a place formerly remarkable for its healthiness, has been sadly affected by this disease for the past five months. In that time some one hundred children have been swept off, and it is still raging to some extent. The parents, in such a time, become terrified and call the children in and keep them housed up, hardly daring to let them breathe the fresh air for fear the fell destroyer will take them away; but this practice has been proven to be the very worst one, for the little ones, being deprived of the necessary air and exercise and fresh air, are almost sure to be the next victims. We have noticed that those children who are allowed to rough it, out doors, just as much as they desire, are the ones who escape.—Rock Island Argus.

SHARP.—We were told yesterday of a patriotic business operation, which reflects no little credit upon the shrewd principal operator. One of our citizens, very patriotic, but in very poor health, conceived the idea of doing something for his country in the way of obtaining recruits for the army, and to that end published to the world that being himself an invalid, and unable to shoulder a musket, he would divide his pile of $300 with any twelve able-bodied, patriotic men who would make good his place in any company he might designate. The thing took admirably—the papers puffed the patriotic invalid for his great liberality, and published his "card" gratuitously, and on his return from the "springs," twelve good and true men were found ready to receive each his $25 and go into camp. Now, it happened about this time, that a recruiting captain, very anxious to complete his roll, to stand letter "A" in his regiment, was offering $50 for volunteers, and as the invalid had the disposal of his twelve men, he very shrewdly struck up a bargain with the captain, and transferred his $25 men over at $50 per head, clearing the snug little sum of $300, and getting full credit for being one of the most patriotic men of the age. At least, such is the story as it was told to us. No names given. Sharp, wasn't it?—Madison Patriot.

FRAUD IN PRINTING UNITED STATES TREASURY NOTES AND SMALL CURRENCY.—Serious charges have been preferred against the contractors for printing the treasury notes and small currency. They receive the highest prices for paper, and are using a very inferior article. The engraving is said to be even worse. Some of it, which is contracted to be done on the "eccentric lathe," is produced by what is called a "rose," an instrument in the hands of every counterfeiter and jeweler. Many of the designs are from old dies, which have been multiplied by hundreds. The ink is claimed to be patent, but on most of the notes is not green, as is the genuine, and as has been tested by chemists, and found to be of a spurious nature—a great saving to the contractors. When congress meets we may have some strange developments.

PARTY VS. COUNTRY.—"Few, however, can have failed to observe that, in Ohio, and Indiana, and Wisconsin, there are perhaps half a dozen newspaper organs calling themselves democratic, which, while fighting radicalism, have seemed willing to fight nothing else. They have had scarcely a word to say in behalf of the maintenance of the Union. They have expressed no joy at the successes, no regret at the reverses, of the loyal arms. They have not spoken in favor of enlistments but rather seemed, perhaps without intending it, to discourage them. We are disposed to attribute their course, not to any deliberate treason, but rather to the old spirit of partisan politics run mad, yet it is calculated to do, to some extent, the work of treason."—Louisville Journal.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

CAIRO, Nov. 25.

Ten hundred and twenty-six rebel prisoners arrived from Sandusky last night; also two hundred and sixteen from Alton this morning. There are now sixteen hundred here, who will start for Vicksburg to-night.

We have nothing from Memphis or La-Grange.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—11 P. M.

Advices from the Times' special correspondent at Falmouth, dated this morning, shows clearly that the rebels are preparing vigorously to dispute the passage of our troops across the river at Fredericksburg. Instead of their garrison, small a week ago, leaving the city, it has been reinforced by the forces under Longstreet and Hill, estimated at 75,000 men, and formidable batteries have been planted for their protection. Without some brilliant stroke of strategy on our part, a severe engagement will be necessary before dislodging the enemy.

There is no room for reasonable doubt that Jackson has abandoned and taken up his line of march for Richmond, on Saturday morning, protected by Hampton's legion. They spent a portion of yesterday by Warrenton, whilst about 300 guerrillas were at Leesburg on Sunday.

We learn by special advices from the Times' correspondent at Centreville, that the retirement of Sigel towards Washington, and the concentration of his forces, was a strategic movement, made in view of designs on the part of Jackson to cut off his divisions in detail, and by offensive demonstrations against Washington to execute a powerful diversion, intended to embarrass General Burnside's forward movements. Sigel's plan was completely successful, and Jackson frustrated in his design.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

Herald's Newbern letter says a splendid reconnoisance, by a body of Gen. Foster's forces, supported by a battery, was made on the Dover road, in the direction of Kinston, N. C., on the 18th. They met the enemy behind a strong fortification at Cone Creek. After a severe cavalry fight, in which both sides fought gallantly, our artillery shelled the rebels out of their position, leaving their arms, equipments, and blankets behind them. Our forces destroyed their barracks and then returned to Newbern.

Per Roanoke from New Orleans.—By an order of Gen. Butler, the property within the district recently possessed by our forces under Gen. Weitzel, to be known as the Lafourche district, is declared sequestered, and all sales or transfers of it are forbidden. This district comprises all the territory of Louisiana lying west of the Mississippi, except the parishes of Plaquemine and Jefferson. A commission has been appointed to take possession of the district.

The sugar plantations are to be worked by them, where they are not worked by their owners, and negro or white labor may be employed at discretion. All property belonging to disloyal persons is to be inventoried and sold for the benefit of the government, under the provisions of the confiscation act. Another suppresses distilleries and other manufactories of strong drink. Another announces that any officer found drinking intoxicating liquors, in any public drinking place, will be recommended to the President for dismissal from the service. Another one suppresses the National Advocate for an improper publication. Still another prohibits the arrest of any slave unless the person arresting knows that such slave is owned by a loyal citizen. Among the property confiscated as above noted, is Gen. Bragg's plantation.

The Tribune's special says two released Massachusetts officers, who have returned from Richmond, say the tone of the press and aspect of the people at Richmond indicate that they consider the place in great danger, and that they are aware of the strength of the national army, and its determination to deal them a terrible blow.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 24.

The Savannah Republican says: We have reason to believe the government has again put the wheels of war in motion in the right direction, which, properly conducted, will thwart all the cherished plans of the enemy and secure his overthrow at every point. We shall hear the result at an early day.

The Richmond Enquirer states that ten days ago a very accomplished lady connected with people in Richmond, of great wealth and influence, was imprisoned in Castle Thunder, under a charge of giving information to the Yankees, by way of Portsmouth where she dwells, and from which place she has made several visits to Richmond.

The Augusta, Ga., Sentinel of Nov. 19th, says: J. C. Cole, a refugee from New Orleans, has invented a machine for making percussion caps which excels everything of the kind ever known north or south. Its superiority consists in the manner in which the cap is cut from the copper and formed at a single operation. It is capable of making by hand 100 per minute, and by steam 105,000 per day. It has been discovered in Georgia that by digging wells 40 miles from the main shore, water is obtained 250 gallons of which will make one gallon of salt, while it takes 700 gallons of tide water to make the same quantity.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

Advices from Havana state that the French had occupied Jalapa without resistance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.

The annual reports of heads of departments are nearly completed, with the exception of that of the Secretary of the Treasury, which is delayed in part by the continual preparation of estimates of the war department, and other data in that connection, involving an extraordinary amount of labor. President Lincoln's message will probably be transmitted to congress on the first day of the session. No copies of this important document will be sent out in advance, therefore it will be telegraphed to the press as soon as its reading shall be commenced.

The object of this course is understood to be the prevention of a premature disclosure of its contents, and to enable the President to avail himself of the latest official intelligence that may come to hand. Members of congress are arriving on every train, and have already become quite numerous.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

The U. S. ship Shepherd Knapp, of 7 guns, arrived at this port last night in five days from St. Helena Sound. About ten days since an expedition, composed of her boats, drove the rebels from Fenwick Island, up the Edisto river.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

☞ Counterfeit postage currency has been issued in New York. The counterfeiters have succeeded in closely imitating the lettering, with the exception of the date, which is in larger figures than the genuine. The latter work is rather poorly executed, as also the margins, having been evidently done by an inferior machine; but if the paper is soiled the defect would scarcely be noticed, especially in a poor light.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Office hours tomorrow (Thanksgiving) from 8 to 11 A. M.; then close for balance of the day.

"Sam, do you know why that stick of wood you're sawing is like the elephant that was here last week?" "I'll be hanged if I can see any resemblance. Why is it, Bill?" "Because you saw it, to be sure!"

DIED.

In the town of Plymouth, at the residence of James Whitehead, on the 30th of October last, Mr. RALPH WHITEHEAD, aged 96 years.

The day on which he died was his birthday.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN
Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115,712.85, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.
H. G. WILSON, General Agent.

The company has a large number of lives insured in Janesville. Applications for insurance received by the agent, Willard Merrill, at his law office in Lappin's block.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 26, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Advance upon Richmond---An Amended Programme.

The Philadelphia Press says that the military authorities at Washington have determined to make a diversion in a different quarter from that now occupied by the army of the Potomac. One of our most distinguished generals has expressed the opinion that to take Richmond now we must temporarily divert the enemy's attention from his present fortified base of operations. No immediate advance will be made upon Richmond by way of Fredericksburg. After mentioning the modes of advance by way of York and James rivers, the Press suggests a third by way of Suffolk, through Nansemond, Isle of Wight, Southampton, Sussex and Prince George counties, along excellent roads, through a level, well-watered plain, seizing Blandford Heights, overlooking Petersburg. This is a march of fifty-eight miles. In the latter movement we would have the cover of gunboats in the James river, if needed, and the privilege of landing reinforcements as high up as City Point, twelve miles below Petersburg, and Coggin's Point, fourteen miles below that point.

From Petersburg, a cavalry expedition would be necessary only to proceed west to Burkesville Junction of the Tennessee and Danville railroads and destroy them both. It seems to us that if Petersburg were once in our hands it would give us virtual possession of the entire south, and force Gen. Lee to fight his army either to extermination or submission, without any chance of retreat, or means of obtaining supplies or reinforcements from the south and southwest.

The Army and Slavery.

The Milwaukee News, of course denounces Col. Utley, and sympathizes with the Kentucky judge who pronounces the confiscation laws of congress and the emancipation proclamation of the President unconstitutional and of no validity. Whenever a slaveholder gets into trouble about his human chattels, the News is in tribulation also. Its democracy consists in defending and shielding from harm the worst aristocracy that exists on the face of God's earth. How it is possible that such newspapers can delude laboring men into the support of a party which has but one end and aim, and that is to support a set of aristocrats who degrade labor by buying and selling those who do their work, is one of the strangest things in the history of the race. A negro cannot fall into the ranks of the Union army anywhere without producing spasm on the part of the News and its fellow democrats. It is in this case, as in all others of this nature. Col. Utley is wrong and the Kentucky slaveholder is right, in the eyes of the slavery worshippers.

The News declares that "the colonel believes that on the subject of slavery the laws of Wisconsin should prevail in Kentucky." This is a false statement of the case. The colonel believes that the United States army is governed by the same laws everywhere throughout the country. The articles of war controlling our troops in the field are not changed by the laws of Kentucky, but are the same there as in Wisconsin, or Tennessee, or Mississippi. Colonel Utley reads the laws of congress and finds that no one connected with the army has a right to judge of the status of the negro, or to deliver any one claimed as a slave to his master. Must he obey this law or violate it? The News would have him rebel against national enactments to accommodate the aristocrats of Kentucky, who think more of robbing a negro of his labor than of the blessings of a republican government. We are not surprised that Colonel Utley repudiates such doctrines, and we rejoice that he has the firmness to stand unflinchingly upon his rightful position in the face of blustering slaveholders and sympathisers with treason. We venture the prediction that Col. Utley is, to-day, the most popular commander in this state whom Wisconsin has sent into the field, because he has the "backbone" to stand by his principles and his duty against all the arts, blandishments and frowns of the aristocrats of Kentucky. The people spontaneously honor him wherever the account of his conflict with the chief justice of that state is known and read.

Col. Utley does not stand alone in the army, on this question, as the following order of Gen. Sherman will show:

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
MEMPHIS, Nov. 11, 1862.

The judge of the criminal court having charged the grand jury on certain points where a conflict of authority might arise, all persons will take notice that any attempt to execute state laws at variance with the orders of the President and military commanders, will be construed as a contempt of the authority of the United States, and will be summarily punished. The status of the negro is involved in the war now existing and will in its progress be clearly determined. In the meantime, runaway slaves must be treated as free, and people encouraged to give them employment as such. So far as the court confines its business to punishing murder, arson, burglary and crime mala in se, the provost guard is required to co-operate.

By order of Major General Sherman.
(Signed) D. C. ANTHONY,
Provost Marshal of Memphis.

Judge Potter writes a letter giving strong reasons why another should be elected, and why all republicans should avoid controversy and unite on that other. The question is whether this advice is good or bad, sound or unsound. It appears as very fair logic, that those who have faith that Judge Potter would prove a good representative (and we are of the number) should have some confidence in the wisdom of his advice, and be governed accordingly.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

We are not sure that Judge Potter has written just such a letter as is described above. If he gives "strong reasons" why no one should think of any other person as a republican candidate for senator than Judge Doolittle, we should like to know what they are. Let us have the whole letter published, that all may judge for themselves. This setting up the pins for a particular man for the senatorial office, and then demanding that no one shall knock these pins over, for fear of a "controversy," is an old game. "We have got it all settled," say the insiders, "and you fellows outside must not get up any fuss, but submit quietly to our dictation." This game won't win, this time. The great mass of the republican voters of the state want a senator who will represent them and their ideas. They, therefore, have a right to a voice in choosing him, and we do not believe, will submit to be managed out of it by any representation that the thing is already settled, and that the only way to keep peace in the family is to cease all controversy and unite on the candidate selected for them.

We understand that the letter referred to was obtained, the next day or two after the election, by the personal solicitation of Judge Doolittle; that it has never been forwarded to the person to whom it was addressed, but has been continually used, or extracts from it, for the purpose of proving that Judge Potter will not be candidate in any event, and that he declines in favor of Judge Doolittle. We hardly believe the letter will bear this construction; but to settle it let us have it published. The whole of it.

It strikes us that Milwaukee republicans should not be foremost in forestalling public sentiment on the senatorial question. The record is strongly against some of them, and the odium of it rests upon all—five thousand majority against them, and yet foremost to dictate candidates! Treachery in their ranks, but preaching submission to Rock county to avoid controversy! Permitting a mean mob to drag an effigy of John F. Potter through their filthy streets with a rope around its neck, without opposition, and with the approving smile of some who have called themselves republicans, and then attempting to manage the matter so that the people cannot have Potter for senator however much they may want him!

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.
MAJOR GEN. ROSECRANS' HEADQUARTERS,
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 19, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—All things seem to indicate plainly that the rainy season has at last fairly set in here. If that be the case then we may look for rain and mud, then mud and rain for a change. The rain and mud will, no doubt, retard our movements on land somewhat, but will damage the rebels fully as much. The fleet we have now inactive on these western waters wants rain to raise the water, and when that takes place then woe to old cornfed along the rivers.

The work on the tunnel between here and Bowling Green is being pushed ahead as fast as possible and will be completed in a few days, and when that is done we can move on once more. Until that is done we cannot leave here, on account of our supplies; even now we are short of rations again and our animals have no hay.

The men here are nearly all favorably predisposed to General Rosecrans, and his free and easy style, when moving among the different regiments, only increases this confidence. The other day when reviewing Gens. Negley's and Palmer's commands, if he saw a man in the ranks who needed any article of clothing, from an overcoat to a sock, he would say to that man, "You tell your captain what you need, and give him no rest until you get it. If he is walking down the street with a friend, ask him for it; and if asleep, awaken him to get it for you."

The Nashville Union is a firm, loyal paper, and stands square and steadfast on the emancipation policy. It scruples not to tell the negro-loving people of Nashville that it supports the President and his proclamation, which it keeps in its columns all the time. The editor spares not those officials who neglect their duty, but he exposes them to the public gaze as villains, which they truly are.

Since we came here the produce from the country begins to come in rapidly, but still all things sell at tall prices. Fuel is scarce and high; wood is $15 per cord, and coal $1 per bushel. Business has livened up greatly since we came here, but it is mostly on account of the army.

Large numbers of slaves who have escaped from rebel owners are now in the city, and more are coming every day. The moving of so many slaves south, and the impressment of them into the rebel army, creates a stampede among them for our lines. We expect a winter in the saddle. I say amen!

Yours, in haste, J. M. KIMBALL.

☞ A correspondent of the Beaver Dam Argus, a member of the 17th regiment, writes:

"The 17th is generally known to be almost entirely democratic. By design or accident we did not have an opportunity to vote, last Tuesday, being near the end of a wearisome march, and obliged to accomplish it."

Inasmuch as the Colonel and the officers generally of this regiment are democrats, the "design or accident" of no vote being taken is attributable to them.

Bright sunshine precedes Thanksgiving.

INCIDENTS OF THE DRAFT.—We hear of some queer incidents connected with the draft in this county. One of the drafted men in Bristol, Thomas Kearns, is a volunteer in the 33d regiment, and is now at Cairo or Memphis with his company. He was one of the first to enlist under the call for 300,000 men. In the town of Paris a father and son were drafted—the former being a little over 61 years of age. We noticed the old gentleman in the ranks, when the men were mustered last Saturday—head and beard as white as snow. There were several drafted who were enrolled in two towns, so that they stood a double chance of serving their country. In Somers a citizen of Racine county was drafted, also a citizen of the 2d ward of this city. Adam McAuley was drafted, a well known citizen of Pleasant Prairie, who has twice enlisted and both times been rejected by the mustering officer. He says this is the third time he has enlisted, and he hopes they will let him go this time.—Kenosha Telegraph.

A VIAL OF WRATH.—A confederate surgeon, who had been attending rebel patients in the hospital at Bolivar, being desirous of joining his command in Price's army a few days ago, got permission to go through our lines. He had a very fine medicine chest filled with stores recruited at the federal hospital, which he wished to take with him. Our officers objected to this proposition. The matter was finally referred to General McPherson, and an examination of the chest was ordered. On taking out the drugs and medicines, a small secret apartment was discovered in the box, which was found to contain a pint bottle. The bottle was bro't forth, and the contents were discovered to be anything but spiritual. They consisted of editorial articles cut from the columns of the Chicago Times the most violent efforts of that delectable sheet for the past two or three months. Strung together they made a succession of powerful phillippics against the government, which would certainly give no little aid and comfort in the south, as the sentiment of the leading democratic paper of the northwest. The vial of wrath was sent to Governor Yates, and may cause some trouble at the Times office before long.—Corinth cor. Cincinnati Com.

TO PRESERVE POTATOES.—The potato crop is too valuable this season to be lost by rot, if it can be saved. A correspondent of the Scientific American says he has tried the following plan of keeping potatoes for four years, and not lost a bushel in that time after they were harvested, though they were half diseased when taken out of the ground:

Dust over the floor of the bin with lime and put in about six or seven inches deep of potatoes, and dust with lime as before. Put in six or seven inches more of potatoes, and lime as before; repeat the operation till all are stowed in that way. One bushel of lime will do for forty bushels of potatoes, though more will not hurt them—the lime rather improving the flavor than otherwise.

DIPTHERIA IN WESTERN ILLINOIS.—The diptheria has been raging throughout the country to an alarming extent, and seems to a great extent to baffle the skill of the physicians. It is confined most exclusively to children, and when once under headway, death is almost certain to be the result. It will pass through whole town, missing scarcely a family, and in some instances whole families of children have been swept away by it.

Our neighboring town of Moline, a place formerly remarkable for its healthiness, has been sadly affected by this disease for the past five months. In that time some one hundred children have been swept off, and it is still raging to some extent. The parents, in such a time, become terrified and call the children in and keep them housed up, hardly daring to let them breathe the fresh air for fear the fell destroyer will take them away; but this practice has been proven to be the very worst one, for the little ones, being deprived of the necessary air and exercise and fresh air, are almost sure to be the next victims. We have noticed that those children who are allowed to rough it, out doors, just as much as they desire, are the ones who escape.—Rock Island Argus.

SHARP.—We were told yesterday of a patriotic business operation, which reflects no little credit upon the shrewd principal operator. One of our citizens, very patriotic, but in very poor health, conceived the idea of doing something for his country in the way of obtaining recruits for the army, and to that end published to the world that being himself an invalid, and unable to shoulder a musket, he would divide his pile of $300 with any twelve able-bodied, patriotic men who would make good his place in any company he might designate. The thing took admirably—the papers puffed the patriotic invalid for his great liberality, and published his "card" gratuitously, and on his return from the "springs," twelve good and true men were found ready to receive each his $25 and go into camp. Now, it happened about this time, that a recruiting captain, very anxious to complete his roll, to stand letter "A" in his regiment, was offering $50 for volunteers, and as the invalid had the disposal of his twelve men, he very shrewdly struck up a bargain with the captain, and transferred his $25 men over at $50 per head, clearing the snug little sum of $300, and getting full credit for being one of the most patriotic men of the age. At least, such is the story as it was told to us. No names given. Sharp, wasn't it?—Madison Patriot.

FRAUD IN PRINTING UNITED STATES TREASURY NOTES AND SMALL CURRENCY.—Serious charges have been preferred against the contractors for printing the treasury notes and small currency. They receive the highest prices for paper, and are using a very inferior article. The engraving is said to be even worse. Some of it, which is contracted to be done on the "eccentric lathe," is produced by what is called a "rose," an instrument in the hands of every counterfeiter and jeweler. Many of the designs are from old dies, which have been multiplied by hundreds. The ink is claimed to be patent, but on most of the notes is not green, as is the genuine, and as has been tested by chemists, and found to be of a spurious nature—a great saving to the contractors. When congress meets we may have some strange developments.

PARTY VS. COUNTRY.—"Few, however, can have failed to observe that, in Ohio, and Indiana, and Wisconsin, there are perhaps half a dozen newspaper organs calling themselves democratic, which, while fighting radicalism, have seemed willing to fight nothing else. They have had scarcely a word to say in behalf of the maintenance of the Union. They have expressed no joy at the successes, no regret at the reverses, of the loyal arms. They have not spoken in favor of enlistments but rather seemed, perhaps without intending it, to discourage them. We are disposed to attribute their course, not to any deliberate treason, but rather to the old spirit of partisan politics run mad, yet it is calculated to do, to some extent, the work of treason."—Louisville Journal.

To pin our faith to another man's sleeve and submit to be led by authority, deprives us of independence and subjects us to just contempt.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

CAIRO, Nov. 25.

Ten hundred and twenty-six rebel prisoners arrived from Sandusky last night; also two hundred and sixteen from Alton this morning. There are now sixteen hundred here, who will start for Vicksburg to-night.

We have nothing from Memphis or La-Grange.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25—11 P. M.

Advices from the Times' special correspondent at Falmouth, dated this morning, shows clearly that the rebels are preparing vigorously to dispute the passage of our troops across the river at Fredericksburg. Instead of their garrison, small a week ago, leaving the city, it has been reinforced by the forces under Longstreet and Hill, estimated at 75,000 men, and formidable batteries have been planted for their protection. Without some brilliant stroke of strategy on our part, a severe engagement will be necessary before dislodging the enemy.

There is no room for reasonable doubt that Jackson has abandoned and taken up his line of march for Richmond, on Saturday morning, protected by Hampton's legion. They spent a portion of yesterday by Warrenton, whilst about 300 guerrillas were at Leesburg on Sunday.

We learn by special adv'ces from the Times' correspondent at Centreville, that the retirement of Sigel towards Washington, and the concentration of his forces, was a strategic movement, made in view of designs on the part of Jackson to cut off his divisions in detail, and by offensive demonstrations against Washington to execute a powerful diversion, intended to embarrass General Burnside's forward movements. Sigel's plan was completely successful, and Jackson frustrated in his design.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

Herald's Newbern letter says a splendid reconnoisance, by a body of Gen. Foster's forces, supported by a battery, was made on the Dover road, in the direction of Kinston, N. C., on the 18th. They met the enemy behind a strong fortification at Cone Creek. After a severe cavalry fight, in which both sides fought gallantly, our artillery shelled the rebels out of their position, leaving their arms, equipments, and blankets behind them. Our forces destroyed their barracks and then returned to Newbern.

Per Roanoke from New Orleans.—By an order of Gen. Butler, the property within the district recently possessed by our forces under Gen. Weitzel, to be known as the Lafourche district, is declared sequestered, and all sales or transfers of it are forbidden. This district comprises all the territory of Louisiana lying west of the Mississippi, except the parishes of Plaquemine and Jefferson. A commission has been appointed to take possession of the district.

The sugar plantations are to be worked by them, where they are not worked by their owners, and negro or white labor may be employed at discretion. All property belonging to disloyal persons is to be inventoried and sold for the benefit of the government, under the provisions of the confiscation act. Another suppresses distilleries and other manufactories of strong drink. Another announces that any officer found drinking intoxicating liquors, in any public drinking place, will be recommended to the President for dismissal from the service. Another one suppresses the National Advocate for an improper publication. Still another prohibits the arrest of any slave unless the person arresting knows that such slave is owned by a loyal citizen. Among the property confiscated as above noted, is Gen. Bragg's plantation.

The Tribune's special says two released Massachusetts officers, who have returned from Richmond, say the tone of the press and aspect of the people at Richmond indicate that they consider the place in great danger, and that they are aware of the strength of the national army, and its determination to deal them a terrible blow.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 24.

The Savannah Republican says: We have reason to believe the government has again put the wheels of war in motion in the right direction, which, properly conducted, will thwart all the cherished plans of the enemy and secure his overthrow at every point. We shall hear the result at an early day.

The Richmond Enquirer states that ten days ago a very accomplished lady connected with people in Richmond, of great wealth and influence, was imprisoned in Castle Thunder, under a charge of giving information to the Yankees, by way of Portsmouth where she dwells, and from which place she has made several visits to Richmond.

The Augusta, Ga., Sentinel of Nov. 19th, says: J. C. Cole, a refugee from New Orleans, has invented a machine for making percussion caps which excels everything of the kind ever known north or south. Its superiority consists in the manner in which the cap is cut from the copper and formed at a single operation. It is capable of making by hand 100 per minute, and by steam 105,000 per day. It has been discovered in Georgia that by digging wells 40 miles from the main shore, water is obtained 250 gallons of which will make one gallon of salt, while it takes 700 gallons of tide water to make the same quantity.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

Advices from Havana state that the French had occupied Jalapa without resistance.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.

The annual reports of heads of departments are nearly completed, with the exception of that of the Secretary of the Treasury, which is delayed in part by the continual preparation of estimates of the war department, and other data in that connection, involving an extraordinary amount of labor. President Lincoln's message will probably be transmitted to congress on the first day of the session. No copies of this important document will be sent out in advance, therefore it will be telegraphed to the press as soon as its reading shall be commenced.

The object of this course is understood to be the prevention of a premature disclosure of its contents, and to enable the President to avail himself of the latest official intelligence that may come to hand. Members of congress are arriving on every train, and have already become quite numerous.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

The U. S. ship Shepherd Knapp, of 7 guns, arrived at this port last night in five days from St. Helena Sound. About ten days since an expedition, composed of her boats, drove the rebels from Fenwick Island, up the Edisto river.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.

Flour heavy and declining, 5,55a6,55 super western; 5,95a6,30 common to medium extra western; 6,70a6,80 common to good shipping brands extra R. H. Ohio. Wheat dull, heavy and 1c lower, 1,16a1,23 Chicago spring; 1,22a1,30 Milwaukee club; 1,31a1,33 amber Iowa. Gold 1,29; demand notes 1,22½.

☞ Counterfeit postage currency has been issued in New York. The counterfeiters have succeeded in closely imitating the lettering, with the exception of the date, which is in larger figures than the genuine. The latter work is rather poorly executed, as also the margins, having been evidently done by an inferior machine; but if the paper is soiled the defect would scarcely be noticed, especially in a poor light.

TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—Office hours to-morrow (Thanksgiving) from 8 to 11 A. M.; then close for balance of the day.

"Sam, do you know why that stick of wood you're sawing is like the elephant that was here last week?" "I'll be hanged if I can see any resemblance. Why is it, Bill?" "Because you saw it, to be sure!"

DIED.

In the town of Plymouth, at the residence of James Whitehead, on the 30th of October last, Mr. RALPH WHITEHEAD, aged 96 years.

The day on which he died was his birthday.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN
Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115,712.85, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.
H. G. WILSON, General Agent.

The company has a large number of lives insured in Janesville. Applications for insurance received by the agent, Willard Merrill, at his law office in Lappin's block.

J. M. BURGESS, Postmaster.

Union Thanksgiving.

Under the arrangement existing among several of the churches in this city for a Union observance of thanksgiving day, religious services will be held at the Congregational church to morrow morning at half past ten o'clock, the Rev. E. J. Goodspeed preaching the sermon. Our citizens generally are invited to attend.

A Thanksgiving Duty.

One of the duties to morrow, which will receive a rich return in heartfelt thanks, will be the remembrance of the families of absent soldiers. While the tables of our citizens will be blessed with an abundance of good living, let the homes of the soldiers be cheered by a liberal supply.

Thanksgiving.

There will be divine service, in accordance with the proclamation of the governor, and time honored usage, to morrow, (Thursday) in Christ Church, at 10½ o'clock A. M.

To the Congregation of Christ Church:

BELOVED BRETHREN—To-morrow we are called upon to render thanks to Almighty God for the innumbered mercies of the past year, and to implore their continuance. Never has there been a time when it was more incumbent upon all christian people to draw near to God with thanksgiving, prayer and earnest supplication. "Offer unto God thanksgiving and pay thy vows unto the Most High, and call upon me in the day of trouble. I will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify me." [Ps. L 14, 15.] Let, then, the house of God be crowded with thankful hearts, desirous of expressing their gratitude. Let business be suspended, and the day kept as a religious feast. Let not the poor be forgotten in our good things, that they may feast with us and bless God. Remember the families of any who are gone out in defence of our country and Union, that the day (Est. ix. 22) may be a day of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and of gifts to the poor.

Your friend and pastor,
H. W. SPALDING.

Lyon's Kathairon.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually! It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Kathairon is not only the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but that it cleanses the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively, rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon. It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

Chicago Market.

TUESDAY, Nov. 25.

The demand for exchange is less active and rates are easier. The banks as a general thing are drawing at ½ per cent premium and buying at par. The money market is quiet and without essential change. The offerings of produce paper are light, and discounts are confined mainly to Pork paper. Rates of interest range from 8a10 per cent per annum—principally at the outside quotation.

Gold is very quiet and the tendency is downward.—The quotation in New York this morning was 1,29½. The brokers here generally pay 1 per cent less than the New York rate. Demand notes are quiet at 1,22 a1,23½. There is no change to notice in the market for silver. The buying rates are quoted at 1,22a1,23.

Lake navigation is virtually closed for the season, and there is little or nothing doing in grain for shipment. Very few vessels will now venture down, and the shipments for the remainder of the season will be principally by propellers.

The wheat market opened steady but quiet at yesterday's prices, but closed dull and heavy. Sales were made at 81 for No 1 red, 85a95¼c for No 2 red, 88a91c for No 1 spring, 75a83½c for No 2 spring, 89c for rejected red, and 63a69c for rejected spring.

There was a fair inquiry for flour at the opening, freight room being more easily obtained on propellers, but after the New York dispatches were received the market closed dull and easier. Winter extras sold at a range of from 5,10a5,25, and fair to choice spring extras at 4,25a4,70.

Corn opened firm but less active and closed dull at a decline of 1a1½c; canal mixed sold at 34c afloat and 35c f. o. b., railroad mixed in store at 31½a33c, and rejected at 28½a29c.

Oats were firmer, with sales of No 1 at 34½a36½c. Rye was quiet but steady at 51c. Barley was easier and quiet.

Highwines firm and nshade better; sales at 32a32½c. Hides firm at full prices. Butter unsettled and irregular. Provisions dull. Lard heavy and drooping.—Cheese advanced ½a1c.

There is little or nothing doing in either cattle or hogs, and the market is with nt quotable change. Inferior grades of cattle are dull and heavy at $1,05a2,25, medium grades range from $2,25a2,60, packing lots $2 90a3,00, extra shipping beeves $3,00a3,50. Live hogs $3,37a3 15.—Journal.

A Voice from the Battle-Field!

THE WOUNDED AT ANTIETAM.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE.

THE HORROR OF WAR.

A Remarkable Letter for Everybody to Read!

The following letter from the special correspondent of the New York Evening Express was written immediately after the recent battles. As it contains many facts of general interest to the people, we are induced to insert it here. We are sure our readers will thank us for doing so:

* * * * * * * *

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sanguinary of the war, and the only one fought with visible design, and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps—the overlooking position of the commanding general—the sending into action the right and the left divisions—the closing up of the center and final success—excite bewildering agitation, and carry the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart history of such a conflict, purchased by the life and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals. War has its glories—but it has its ten thousand demons in these human tortures, that make the eye-balls ache—the heart ache—the lips pallid and the brain reel. The sight is at first positively unendurable. The life blood of some is still trickling away in silent calmness—while the disevered limbs and maniac brains of others, give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who here seek a son—or wives a husband—or sisters a brother—or sons a father—know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved ones than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant Hooker that I heard the history of those mythical words, so often seen and so little understood, "S. T.—1860—X." Anything alleviating the sufferings and saving the lives of our soldiers, is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is the rat, which added to the loss of blood in the wounded creates the necessity for a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bitters, otherwise called S. T.—1860—X, and although the wounded were most numerous here—this division having opened the fight at five in the morning—the men were mostly composed, and there was very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves in the most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent reaction. It originated in the West Indies, composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in St. Croix Rum—the S. T.—1860—X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers, stomach difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the southern states previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietor for the privilege to make it for hospital purposes during the war, to which they made the following reply:

NEW YORK, Jan. 16th, 1862.

Dr. ——, Agent, &c.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your communication offering us "Fifty Thousand Dollars for the receipt and right to make the Plantation Bitters for your hospital during the war," we beg to say, your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise we can derive no revenue from the southern states; but sir, our duties to our government and our ideas of consistency, would not allow us to entertain it, although it might please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

We remain very respectfully yours,
P. H. DRAKE & CO.

These gentlemen give the history of certain ingredients of their article for over two hundred years—showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Doctor Woods, in the Washington Hospitals, informed me that one patient was fast sinking and crazy, and had not slept an hour in two weeks until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our government has not equalled Jefferson Davis in energy, and adopted this valuable article in all our hospitals. The weak soldiers cling to it like a brother. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "good to take," and affords more energy and life than anything I ever tried. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

But I have digressed. In my next, I shall speak of gathering in the wounded, burying the dead, &c., &c.

NICODEMUS.

From the Saturday Evening Gazette.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—The particular and variable state of the atmosphere, at this season of the year, is a prolific source of miasmatic disease. People troubled with Dyspepsia and kindred ailments, feel their trouble more seriously at this season than any other.—Intelligents may be avoided. The PLANTATION BITTERS, so favorably known to our community, are a never failing specific for Dyspepsia, and all its train of concomittant evils.

They are, moreover, a most delicious morning appetizer, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage—If we were permitted to say a word in the ear of every sufferer in the land, that word would be—'Try the Plantation Bitters."

From the Providence Advertiser.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE."—We take great pleasure in commending to the notice of our readers the celebrated "S. T.—1860—X," or Plantation Bitters. The Bitters have attained popularity unparalleled in the history of proprietary medicines. All who use them speak in the highest terms of their wonderful effects and medicinal virtues. The formula upon which they are made accompanies each bottle, so that all may judge for themselves of their efficacy. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

☞ We might multiply testimonials to any length but cui bono? The people are, after all, the best judges, and they say that the Janesville, Wis., Nov. 13th, 1862.

I HEREBY give notice to all persons interested, that I intend to make application to the circuit court, in and for Rock county, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held at the court room in the city of Janesville, on the 24th day of November, A. D. 1862, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, for judgment against the several lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land, described in my report then and there to be made and filed with the clerk of said court, for the unpaid taxes levied by the common council of the city of Janesville, for city purposes, for the year 1862, and charged up in such lots, lands, pieces and parcels of land, to be returned as delinquent for said year; and all persons interested therein are requested to attend at such term of said court, and offer their defence, (if any they have,) to said application.

New York Cash Store!

October 28th, 1862.

THE LARGEST, CHEAPEST & MOST EXTENSIVE

MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENT

In the Interior of Wisconsin.

SMITH & BOSTWICK

PROPRIETORS.

All kinds of Merchandise on Sale by the Piece, Package or Case

Also, at Retail, at from Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the present price of the Manufacturers.

The Fall and Winter Campaign is now

Fully Opened.

THE NEW YORK CASH STORE

has got

The Lead

and is

BOUND TO KEEP IT.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Step It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the interior of Wisconsin, particularly of

STAPLE GOODS.

Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from

Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our store at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.

We shall for the next thirty day sell our entire stock of

Domestic Goods,

consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Rags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.

Our stock of Foreign

FANCY & STAPLE GOODS

is twice as large as it ever was before, and is both the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.

LADIES' CLOAKS.

The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of

of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Broche made.

LADIES' FURS!

Three thousand dollars worth of these goods just received. In these goods we know no competition—having bought our entire stock direct from the importers and manufacturers, saving two or three jobbers' profits. We are selling Ladies' Furs less than merchants pay for them who buy in a small way. We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.

Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,

&c. These goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of

TWO HUNDRED DOZEN

of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our cash some two months since, and were under at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful

SILK PLUSH HOODS,

trimmed with fur, to be found in no other place in Janesville.

Merchant Tailoring Department.

☞ Our Cloth Room now contains much the largest stock of good

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
VESTINGS
and
FURNISHING GOODS,

to be found in this city, and as good as can be found in any city in this country, from which we are in as good styles as can be obtained in Broadway or elsewhere. Persons wanting fine clothing need not go away for it, as we will satisfy them that it can be done here as well as elsewhere.

MANUFACTURING ALL KINDS of GARMENTS

READY-MADE CLOTHING

and

HAT AND CAP STORE.

This branch of our business having increased to a very large trade, we are running a store separate from our main store, which is three doors below, on Main street, where we have the largest stock of

and

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

to be found in any establishment in this city.

Particular attention is called to our immense stock of

Mens' & Boys' Hats & Caps

of all qualities and prices. In these goods we shall not attempt to enumerate our stock, as that would be an impossibility. We buy all our Hats and Caps by the cash from the manufacturers, and we will guarantee to sell these particular goods,

Twenty-Five per cent Cheaper than they can be bought at any other house in this city. Persons living within one hundred miles of Janesville, will make money by coming here to buy their goods; and when you get here, be sure and come to the

New York Cash Store

Before you buy your goods.

Union Thanksgiving.

Under the arrangement existing among several of the churches in this city for a Union observance of thanksgiving day, religious services will be held at the Congregational church to-morrow morning at half-past ten o'clock, the Rev. E. J. Goodspeed preaching the sermon. Our citizens generally are invited to attend.

A Thanksgiving Duty.

One of the duties to-morrow, which will receive a rich return in heartfelt thanks, will be the remembrance of the families of absent soldiers. While the tables of our citizens will be blessed with an abundance of good living, let the homes of the soldiers be cheered by a liberal supply.

Thanksgiving.

There will be divine service, in accordance with the proclamation of the governor, and time-honored usage, to-morrow, (Thursday) in Christ Church, at 10½ o'clock A. M.

To the Congregation of Christ Church:

BELOVED BRETHREN—To-morrow we are called upon to render thanks to Almighty God for the unnumbered mercies of the past year, and to implore their continuance. Never has there been a time when it was more incumbent upon all christian people to draw near to God with thanksgiving, prayer and earnest supplication. "Offer unto God thanksgiving and pay thy vows unto the Most High, and call upon me in the day of trouble. I will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify me." [Ps. L 14, 15.] Let, then, the house of God be crowded with thankful hearts, desirous of expressing their gratitude. Let business be suspended, and the day kept as a religious feast. Let not the poor be forgotten in our good things, that they may feast with us and bless God. Remember the families of any who are gone out in defence of our country and Union, that the day (Est. ix. 22) may be a day of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and of gifts to the poor.

Your friend and pastor,
H. W. SPALDING.

Lyon's Kathairon.

This delightful article for preserving and beautifying the human hair is again put up by the original proprietor, and is now made with the same care, skill and attention, which first created its immense and unprecedented sales of over one million bottles annually. It is still sold at 25 cents in large bottles. Two million bottles can easily be sold in a year when it is again known that the Kathairon is not only the most delightful hair dressing in the world, but that it cleanses the scalp of scurf and dandruff, gives the hair a lively, rich luxuriant growth, and prevents it from turning gray. These are considerations worth knowing. The Kathairon has been tested for over twelve years, and is warranted as described. Any lady who values a beautiful head of hair will use the Kathairon. It is finely perfumed, cheap and valuable. It is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,
BY BUMP & GRAY,
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, NOVEMBER 26, 1862.

Receipts of wheat were again quite large to-day and the market ruled steady and firm at yesterday's prices being 80@85c for milling spring and 70@78c for shipping grades, closing with good demand at those figures. About 4,000 bushels changed hands. Receipts of coarse grains light and prices unchanged. Potatoes are in good demand for shipment, and we note an advance of 5@10c per bushel; sales to-day at 45@50c per 60 lbs. for choice Neshanocks and Pinkeyes and 30@40c for common and mixed lots. Other stuff unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 90a1,00; good to extra milling spring, 80a85c; fair to good shipping grades, 70a78c; rejected qualities 60a70c.

BARLEY—prime samples 90ca$1,00; common to fair 60a80c for 50 lbs.

RYE—in request at 35a40c per 60 lbs.

CORN—pure white dent 80a85c per 60 lbs.; yellow and mixed lots 25a28; ear do 22a25c per 70 lbs.

OATS—good local and shipping demand at 27@28c per bushel.

TIMOTHY SEED—in fair demand at $1,25a1,40 per 46 lbs.

BEANS—choice white 1,25a1,50 per 60 lbs., common to fair quality 60a1.00.

EGGS—scarce at 12a14c per dozen.

FLOUR—spring at retail 2,75, per 100 lbs.

HIDES—Green, to 6a6½; Dry, 11a13.

WOOL—wanted at 45a50c fair to choice clips.

DRESSED HOGS—range from 3,25a3,50 for heavy, and 2,75a3,00 for light.

Chicago Market.

TUESDAY, Nov. 25.

The demand for exchange is less active and rates are easier. The banks as a general thing are drawing at ¼ per cent premium and buying at par. The money market is quiet and without essential change. The offerings of produce paper are light, and discounts are confined mainly to Pork paper. Rates of interest range from 8a10 per cent per annum—principally at the outside quotation.

Gold is very quiet and the tendency is downward.—The quotation in New York this morning was 1,29⅞. The brokers here generally pay 1 per cent less than the New York rate. Demand notes are quiet at 1,22 a1,23¼. There is no change to notice in the market for silver. The buying rates are quoted at 1,22a1,23.

Lake navigation is virtually closed for the season, and there is little or nothing doing in grain for shipment. Very few vessels will now venture down, and the shipments for the remainder of the season will be principally by propellers.

The wheat market opened steady but quiet at yesterday's prices, but closed dull and heavy. Sales were made at $1 for No 1 red, 85a86½c for No 2 red, 86a91c for No 1 spring, 78a83½c for No 2 spring, 80c for rejected red, and 68a69c for rejected spring.

There was a fair inquiry for flour at the opening, freight-room being more easily obtained on propellers, but after the New York dispatches were received the market closed dull and easier. Winter extras sold at a range of from 5,10a5,25, and fair to choice spring extras at 4,25a4 70.

Corn opened firm but less active and closed dull at a decline of 1a1½c; canal mixed sold at 34c afloat and 35c f. o. b., railroad mixed in store at 31½a33c, and rejected at 28½a29c.

Oats were firmer, with sales of No 1 at 34½a36½c. Rye was quiet but steady at 51c. Barley was easier and quiet.

Highwines firm and a shade better; sales at 32a32½c. Hides firm at full prices. Butter unsettled and irregular. Provisions dull. Lard heavy and drooping.—Cheese advanced ½a1c.

There is little or nothing doing in either cattle or hogs, and the market is without quotable change. Inferior grades of cattle are dull and heavy at $1,05a2,25, medium grades range from $2,25a2,60, packing lots $2 50a3,00, extra shipping beeves $3,00a3,50. Live hogs $3,37a3 45.—Journal.

A Voice from the Battle-Field!

THE WOUNDED AT ANTIETAM.

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE.

THE HORROR OF WAR.

A Remarkable Letter for Everybody to Read!

The following letter from the special correspondent of the New York Evening Express was written immediately after the recent battles. As it contains many facts of general interest to the people, we are induced to insert it here. We are sure our readers will thank us for doing so:

* * * * * * * *

This battle (Antietam) has been the most sanguinary of the war, and the only one fought with visible design, and upon military principles. The arrangement of our corps—the overlooking position of the commanding general—the sending into action the right and the left divisions—the closing up of the center and final success—excite bewildering agitation, and carry the mind to the great fields of Austerlitz and Wagram, fought by Napoleon. Of all this have I spoken. The heart history of such a conflict, purchased by the life and blood of twenty thousand men, must be found in the hospitals. War has its glories—but it has its ten thousand demons in these human tortures, that make the eye-balls ache—the heart ache—the lips pallid and the brain reel. Thought is at first positively unendurable. The life blood of some is still trickling away in silent calmness—while the disowered limbs and maniac brains of others, give rise to sounds God grant I may not again witness.

But ye mothers who here seek a son—or wives a husband—or sisters a brother—or sons a father—know and be consoled that even here the hand of mercy is watchful, and better care is bestowed upon your loved ones than might at first seem possible. It was in the hospital where rested the gallant Hooker that I learned the history of those mythical words, so often seen and so little understood, "S. T.—1860—X." Anything alleviating the sufferings and saving the lives of our soldiers, is a national blessing. I witnessed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known the effect of burnt gunpowder and excitement is thirst, which added to the loss of blood in the wounded creates the necessity for a reviving stimulant. In this particular hospital, the physicians were allowing their patients to drink Plantation Bitters, otherwise called S. T.—1860—X, and although the wounded were most numerous here—this division having opened the fight at five in the morning—the men were mostly composed, and there was very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach and nerves in the most incomprehensible manner, superior to brandy, and without subsequent reaction. It originated in the West Indies, composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in St. Croix Rum—the S. T.—1860—X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disordered liver, intermittent fevers, stomach difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the southern states previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietor for the privilege to make it for hospital purposes during the war, to which they made the following reply:

NEW YORK, Jan. 16th, 1862.

DEAR SIR:—In reply to your communication offering us "Fifty Thousand Dollars for the receipt and right to make the Plantation Bitters for your hospital during the war," we beg to say, your price is a liberal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise we can derive no revenue from the southern states; but sir, our duties to our government and our ideas of consistency, would not allow us to entertain it, although it might please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

We remain very respectfully yours,
P. H. DRAKE & CO.

These gentlemen gave the history of certain ingredients of their article for over two hundred years—showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Doctor Woods, in the Washington Hospitals, informed me that one patient was fast sinking and crazy, and had not slept an hour in two weeks until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our government has not equalled Jefferson Davis in energy, and adopted this valuable article in all our hospitals. The weak soldiers cling to it like a brother. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "good to take," and affords more energy and life than anything I ever tried. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

But I have digressed. In my next, I shall speak of gathering in the wounded, burying the dead, &c., &c.

NICODEMUS.

From the Saturday Evening Gazette.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—The particular and variable state of the atmosphere, at this season of the year, is a prolific source of miasmatic disease. People troubled with Dyspepsia and kindred ailments, feel their trouble more seriously at this season than any other.—But all the diseases incident to persons of dyspeptic temperaments may be avoided. The PLANTATION BITTERS, so favorably known to our community, are a never failing specific for Dyspepsia, and all its train of concomitant evils.

They are, moreover, a most delicious morning appetizer, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage—If we were permitted to say a word in the ear of every sufferer in the land, that word would be—"Try the Plantation Bitters."

From the Providence Advertiser.

"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE."—We take great pleasure in commending to the notice of our readers the celebrated "S. T.—1860—X," or Plantation Bitters. The Bitters have attained popularity unparalleled in the history of proprietary medicines. All who use them speak in the highest terms of their wonderful effects and medicinal virtues. The formula upon which they are made accompanies each bottle, so that all may judge for themselves of their efficacy. Success to the Plantation Bitters.

☞ We might multiply testimonials to any length but cui bono? The people are, after all, the best judges, and they say that the

McKey & Bro's
MAMMOTH STOCK
HAS COMMENCED.

THE Largest Stock ever offered in Wisconsin can now be inspected at their store.

A GREAT TRIUMPH has recently been achieved by
THE UNION ARMY,
the importance of which to the whole country is admitted by every loyal man. A great Triumph has also been achieved by

McKEY & BRO.

the results of which are not without their importance to the whole people of Wisconsin, as they must admit upon inspecting our enormous stock, and learning the prices. Five months ago, foreseeing the tremendous advance which has since taken place in the price of

DOMESTIC GOODS,

and believing in the old proverb that "Delays are Dangerous," we took "Time" by the forelock and brought our immense to bear on a depreciated market, and as we had lived and prospered amongst the people of Wisconsin, we resolved that they should have the benefit of our long experience and large Cash Capital. We therefore purchased in May and June last over $100,000 Worth of Domestic Goods, consisting of 300 bales and cases of Fine Medium and Heavy Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings and Shirting, in all the popular widths and makes.

CASH RESOURCES

100 cases Merrimac, Cochece, American, Sprague and other celebrated brands of Fast Color Calicoes, printed in advance for this fall's trade, 50 cases Cotton Flannel, bleached and unbleached, long thick nap, and made on the heaviest drilling.

30 cases and bales of Denims, in the well known Amoskeag, Hay Maker, Mount Vernon and other superior makes.

25 cases and bales of Shirting Stripes, the heaviest and most durable, such as Amoskeag, York, Westbrook, &c.

20 cases Gingham, in Beverly Lancaster and other heavy and fast color makes.

300 bales of Batting, low, medium and Fine.

We have a Monster stock of Flannels of every make, color, quality and width. All our White Flannels are of the highly prized make of Samuel Gilbert, Andover, Mass. They are warranted pure wool and sulphur, stove dried which imparts to them their well known medicinal qualities, and makes them sought after by every New England housewife.

Bargains for Cash.

We shall sell a good Madder Print for 10c. A full Madder Print for one shilling, and all our best and choicest styles for 15c.

We shall sell a good unbleached Factory for one shilling, and a good bleached Factory for the same price.

Choice printed and plain Delaines, worth 20c, at one shilling. If asked how we can afford to do so, we answer "cash" does it.

So much for our Domestic Goods, which have been laid in at a cost of fifty cents on the dollar of what other merchants have since been obliged to pay for them.

We have just received 20 cases of new and choice styles of Hamilton, Manchester and Pacific Delaines, which we shall sell at Cost.

Also 25 pieces of Middlesex, all wool, pressed Flannels, in choice shades, and which we offer at the old price is full and complete, and was bought when prices were at the bottom—before the tremendous advance in exchange took place.

Our Stock of Black Silks

We have now on hand a magnificent stock of consisting of Double Twilled all wool Merinos, printed and plain; English Merinos, printed and plain; French and English Repps and Velours, printed and plain; Tasmania Cloths, Ottomans, Palestrino, Garibaldis, &c. Also 200 pieces all wool and Union Plaid Merinos.

DRESS GOODS,

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

We have over 3,000 superior all wool heavy Blanket Shawls—bought cheap, and which we shall sell cheap.

Our Cloak stock is replete with all the New and Desirable styles.

MILLINERY GOODS.

We are now opening our usual fall and winter stock of French Millinery Goods, which will be found to contain all the new and fashionable styles.

In Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

we are largely and well assorted.

Our Clothing Store

will be found to contain every thing that is new, elegant and economical, consisting of

Coats, Vests and Pants, got up under the supervision of our own experienced cutter, together with a fine assortment of

HATS, CAPS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, &c., &c.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "clap trap" advertisements, but to come at once and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than present New York nett cash prices, at the store of McKEY & BRO.

Fully Opened.

THE NEW YORK CASH STORE

has got

The Lead

and is

BOUND TO KEEP IT.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Stop It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the interior of Wisconsin, particularly of

STAPLE GOODS.

Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from

Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our store at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.

We shall for the next thirty day sell our entire stock of

Domestic Goods,

consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Bags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.

Our stock of Foreign

is twice as large as it ever was before, and which the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.

LADIES' CLOAKS.

The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of

SHAWLS

of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Broche made,

LADIES' FURS!

Three thousand dollars worth of these goods just received. In these goods we know no competition—having bought our entire stock direct from the importers and manufacturers, saving two or three jobbers' profits. We are selling Ladies' Furs less than merchants pay for them who buy in a small way. We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.

Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,

&c. These goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of

of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our orders some two months since, and were made at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful

SILK PLUSH HOODS,

trimmed with fur, to be found in no other place in Janesville.

Merchant Tailoring Department.

☞ Our Cloth Room now contains much the largest stock of good

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
and
FURNISHING GOODS,

to be found in this city, and as good as can be found in any city in this country, from which we are in as good style as can be obtained in Broadway or elsewhere. Persons wanting fine clothing need not go away for it, as we will satisfy them that it can be done here as well as elsewhere.

MANUFACTURING ALL KINDS of GARMENT

and

HAT AND CAP STORE.

This branch of our business having increased to a very large trade, we are running a store separate from our main store, which is three doors below, on Main street, where we have the largest stock of

and

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

to be found in any establishment in this city.

Particular attention is called to our immense stock of

Mens' & Boys' Hats & Caps

of all qualities and prices. In these goods we shall not attempt to enumerate our stock, as that would be an impossibility. We buy all our Hats and Caps by the case from the manufacturers, and we will guarantee to sell these particular goods,

Twenty-Five per cent Cheaper than they can be bought at any other house in this city. Persons living within one hundred miles of Janesville, will make money by coming here to buy their goods; and when you get here, be sure and come to the

before you buy your goods.
